

GeeseMed Allergies Manual-2017

ALLERGIES

- Path: “Patient Hub>>Allergies” [Select Patient First]

- Selecting Allergies opens the screen shown below

1. If there are no known allergies, click the checkbox.
Note: Once ‘No Known Allergy’ is checked, it is reflected in Patient Chart.
2. Select the allergy type: ‘Drug’, ‘Food’ or ‘Environmental’.
3. Select the reaction type: ‘Allergy’, ‘Side Effect’, ‘Intolerance’, ‘Other’ or ‘Unknown’.
4. Select the ‘Severity’ from the dropdown menu as shown below.

5. Select the ‘Onset Date’. ‘Active’ Checkbox selected by default.
6. Click on ‘Save’ button to save the allergy.
7. Click on ‘Cancel’ button to cancel the allergy addition.

- Click on ‘Active’ & ‘Historical’ to see the list of all Allergies, both active and inactive.

Active <input checked="" type="radio"/> Historical <input type="radio"/>		Select	Allergen	Allergy Type	Reaction(s)	OnSet Date
<input type="checkbox"/>			lisinopril-hydrochlorothiazide	Drug Allergy	Unknown	05/05/2017

Active <input type="radio"/> Historical <input checked="" type="radio"/>		Select	Allergen	Allergy Type	Reaction(s)	Severity	OnSet Date	Inactive By	Inactive Date	Inactive Reason
<input type="checkbox"/>			lisinopril-hydrochlorothiazide	Drug Allergy	Unknown	Mild	05/05/2017

8. To mark an allergy inactive, uncheck the “Active” box and enter comments.

OnSet :	09/29/2017	 *	<input type="checkbox"/> Active	Reason :	no longer allergic	*
---------	------------	---	---------------------------------	----------	--------------------	---

9. Click on ‘Save’ button to save the update.

Version Change Log

Version	Date	Updated By	Approved By	Change Details
V6.0.11	08/14/2017	Gary	Marc – 09/29/17	-